

A Huge Mistake

"Where should we go to shop?" asked Cindy.

"I think we should go to Vivo City! There are many shops there and the food there is nice!" Emeral replied excitedly. Cindy nodded and they happily hopped onto a bus to Vivo City. It was a Sunday morning and the sun shone brilliantly in the sky. It was a perfect day for the two best friends to go shopping together.

Soon, Cindy and Emeral reached the mall and eagerly made their way to their favourite clothing shop. It was there that they spotted a beautiful skirt which they had both wanted to buy for a long time. It had a dainty ribbon on it, a blue pocket at the front, and three shiny buttons at the side. The two girls looked at each other as if they were lions about to fight over fresh meat. Cindy snatched the skirt from the hanger and rushed off to the cashier to pay for it.

Emeral, on the other hand, had a look of horror on her face. She did not expect her friend to snatch the skirt from right in front of her. Emeral was livid when she saw Cindy emerge from the changing room proudly wearing her new skirt. Before she knew it, Emeral was so green with envy that she pulled out the scissors that she had in her bag and used it to snip a large hole in Cindy's new skirt.

"Ahh...!" Cindy screamed when she saw what Emeral had done. She could not believe that Emeral had ruined her new skirt. "What do you think you are doing?" Cindy hollered as she pushed Emeral to the ground.

The two girls fought like cats and dogs until a security guard rushed over to separate them. "What's going on, girls?" he demanded. There was momentary silence. The security guard did not know what had happened, but he knew that the two girls had been fighting, so he told them to apologise for the ruckus they had caused and to say sorry to each other.

"Sorry... for being mean to you..." Emeral apologised.

"It's my fault. I should have given you a chance to buy the skirt. I know you wanted it more than me," Cindy replied.

The two girls felt very ashamed and sorry for their actions. It was an unforgettable lesson for both of them. Their selfishness and lack of control had almost destroyed their friendship. They decided they would not make such a huge mistake ever again.
